Residential Technology and Network (ResNet)

Cal Poly Residential Technology and Network (ResNet) is the campus housing network and technology services that support student success in the residential communities. All campus rooms have 24/7 access to the Cal Poly Network and wireless Internet services. ResNet supports academic success and personal connectivity uses through robust connectivity and effective performance, with a focus on delivering the latest network standards. All residents receive convenient access to University Housing TV services, including local broadcast stations, cable networks, sports, and movies, available on lounge area TVs and on personal devices (laptops, phones, tablets, smart TVs). Residential Technology and Network computing support is available in-person, by phone, and online for all campus residents.

Securing Campus Housing

New students
Only students who accept Cal Poly’s offer of admission are able to apply for campus housing. To secure a space for first-year or transfer student housing, students must: 1) accept the offer of admission from Cal Poly; and, 2) complete the online housing application, electronically sign the license agreement, and make the initial payment.

Continuing students
To secure a space for continuing student housing, students must complete the online housing application, electronically sign the license agreement, and make the initial payment.

University Housing offers double, triple and quad rooms in the residence halls. Campus apartments feature single and shared rooms. Housing preferences are granted on a first-come, first-served basis, based on the date the student secured housing, demand, and availability. For complete application information, visit the University Housing website (http://www.housing.calpoly.edu/student-housing).

Fees
The initial payment, required to secure housing, is the first step in the payment process. A non-refundable initial payment may be required for continuing and transfer student applications. The balance of fees for the academic year are paid in advance, either in full, by installment payment plan, or by quarterly financial aid disbursements. View the current housing fees here:
