BA ENGLISH

Program Learning Objectives

Learning Outcomes
1. Explicate texts from a diverse range of traditions, including texts from historically underrepresented groups.
2. Analyze how power structures and cultural practices shape textual production and reception.
3. Critique and produce texts that account for the rhetorical relationships among audience, writer, text, genre, and discourse.
4. Write clearly and effectively in a variety of genres and media.
5. Successfully incorporate scholarly research into papers.
6. Identify and define an array of historical and critical literary, rhetorical, and linguistic terms and categories.

Learning Goals
1. Understand how texts reflect, critique, and produce culture and power structures.
2. Pursue deeper knowledge of particular authors and works, including those from underrepresented groups.
3. Explore the ways identities and affiliations shape texts and traditions.
4. Understand the structure of language and how language varies over time, across social situations and social groups.
5. Participate in face-to-face exchanges of ideas with faculty, fellow students, and authors in the classroom and other academic or social settings.
6. Participate in small seminars where ideas are tested and sharpened.
7. Cultivate relational thinking that encourages students to make connections between the arts and humanities and other fields of study.
8. Sustain a life-long engagement and involvement in aesthetic, cultural, and intellectual matters, including social and political issues.
9. Draw upon multiple literacies to interpret literary, visual, and cultural texts.

Degree Requirements and Curriculum
In addition to the program requirements listed on this page, students must also satisfy requirements outlined in more detail in the Minimum Requirements for Graduation (http://catalog.calpoly.edu/generalrequirementsbachelorsdegree/#generaleducationtext) section of this catalog, including:

- 60 units of upper division courses
- Graduation Writing Requirement (GWR)
- 2.0 GPA
- U.S. Cultural Pluralism (USCP)

Note: No major or support courses may be selected as credit/no credit.
