

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS AND LOGISTICS (IBL) SOLANO CAMPUS

undefined

IBL Courses

IBL 1100 First Year Seminar (1 unit)

Term Typically Offered: F

Offered at the Solano campus. Introduce cadets to the campus community and to prepare them for academic, personal, and professional success through fostering a sense of belonging. Academic strategies and campus resources, to help navigate campus and department norms and expectations, engage in meaningful dialogue, and provide opportunities for self-reflection. 1 lecture. Formerly IBL 110 at Cal Maritime.

IBL 3300 International Business and Logistics Internship (3 units)

Term Typically Offered: SU

Prerequisite: Consent of instructor.

Offered at the Solano campus. Spend time in a domestic work environment that has been setup by the Maritime Policy and Management Department. Acquire practical learning outcomes in management, resource allocation, and business communications. Focus of this experience is to get employment in a company that will enhance the theoretical knowledge, improve the practical learning and build leadership and management skills. Formerly IBL 300 at Cal Maritime.