

BS LIBERAL STUDIES

Program Learning Objectives

Upon graduating, Liberal Studies students will:

1. Examine the importance of the physical, social and cognitive development of children and their application to learning.
2. Demonstrate subject matter competency in the following domains: Reading, Language and Literacy, History and Social Science, Mathematics, Science, Visual and Performing Arts, Physical Education and Human Development.
3. Examine and reflect on how knowledge is developed and organized through best teaching and learning practices specific to each domain, with a focus on metacognition.
4. Demonstrate effective oral, written and interpersonal communication skills in a variety of contexts including the use of appropriate technology.
5. Integrate the content of one discipline into another through the development of projects across subject matter areas.
6. Synthesize information and integrate experiences that promote personal and professional growth in the field of education.
7. Demonstrate engagement as an agent for change in diversity and inclusion using principles of social justice, equity and ethical practice.

Individualized Course of Study

With department chair approval, students may select one of the minors listed below or pursue a course of study which meets their individual needs and interests; this must be initiated early and all courses must be pre-approved. The individualized course of study consists of 18-20 units with at least one course at the 300-400 level. Courses are selected by the student in consultation with an advising faculty member. The list of courses is a contract between the student and the department.

Minors that can be taken to create an Individualized Course of Study

- Ethnic Studies
- Music
- Spanish

When selecting one of these minors to create an ICS, students should be advised the concentration will appear on their official transcript as Individualized Course of Study. The minor must be declared separately with the minor department in order for it to appear on the official transcript.
